

Offer for July 2012 - Small Business Promotional Package

If you have recently started your own business, are a self starter wanting to spread your wings, or have a small business looking to reach a bigger market – then my July offer may be just for you.

Throughout July I will be offering a half price order on my small business packages, which include:

Leaflet / brochure - front cover, inside 2 page spread and back cover – or similar in layout. This includes writing, proofreading and editing of all content, sourcing of all images and full design (InDesign CS6) to meet your requirements. July offer £600

Ten page website - this could be a homepage, about you/ the company, contact page, e-commerce page, image gallery - whatever you require. This includes writing of all web content, sourcing of images and web design. Please note domain names, hosting and other costs may be incurred but will all be clear up front. July offer £800

Design of company stationary – your choice of letterheads and compliment slips or an e-alert. July offer £150

The complete package is available at a further saving - with the above available for £1250, for orders received in July at a huge saving of over £1000 from the usual price.

As I am a freelancer, and I want to give my clients the best quality product, I will only be able to take a limited amount of orders, in July. So, if you would like to order, or if you have any further questions at all please contact me at the details below.
